

Dear Heise Hill Church Family,

How can I thank you all for making the celebration of Harvey's passing such a memorable occasion - from the beautiful flowers to those who organized, served, cleaned up from the lunch, to those who sent cards, gave words of encouragement and to the many who were praying.

The Lord answered your prayers and held me up. Thanks to the Lord for such faithful friends.

Thank you, Gladys Stickley

To our church family,

Thanks so much for the beautiful floral arrangement. It's so good to be remembered by everyone. We do miss worshipping with others each Sunday.

With love, Lorne & Miriam Shropshire

Thank you to the Heise Hill Church for supporting us with the items and clothes that were so needed by our family when the fire took our household contents. We cannot believe the amount of support that has come through at this difficult time.

With great appreciation for everything,
The Buckle family of Bradford

WELCOME!

We're glad you're here today. Generally we use video teaching from The Meeting House so you might have been expecting to see Bruxy Cavey on our big screen today. About twenty five percent of the time we have live sermons, which is what we'll have today. We'll start with some music as we worship God, share a few announcements, share what Jesus is doing in our lives, and then hear some teaching from the Bible. So sit back, relax, and enjoy. Our senior pastor, Steve Authier, would love to meet you today, so make a point of introducing yourself after the service.

Today we are privileged to have Charlie Mashinter, Executive Pastor BIC Churches, share God's message with us. We will have the opportunity to hear what a community church is all about, why life is better in community, and what God is calling us to do.

HOPE 55+

On Monday, February 27 the HOPE 55+ will meet for our noon fellowship meal. John McIntyre, curator of the Sharon Temple, will be our guest and will share the story of this historic building. Invite your friends and make reservations by phoning Margaret - 905-640-3522 or Erma - 905-642-5623.

Make a list of all the things you observe about this church.

What attracted people to this church?

What might happen in your church if you had a big influx of people? What might need to change?

If you were anticipating lost people to be attracted to your gatherings what could you do in advance to make sure they felt welcome when they did come?

How can you attach the message of Jesus in really natural ways to your engagement with your friends?

Talk about it!

CELEBRATE! CELEBRATE! CELEBRATE! Indeed there is great reason to celebrate when a person chooses to affirm their love for Jesus by being baptized. On March 4th Sheena Cardinal will be answering God's call to be baptized. We also have another reason to celebrate on that day. Not only will there be a baptism but we will also get to celebrate a child dedication. Sheena will be dedicating her son, Austin, to the Lord during that same service. Join Sheena in prayer as we all look forward to these joyous Spirit filled events.
